

Acceptable Documents

for Obtaining a Driver's License or Photo Identification Card

To apply for a driver's license, learner's permit, commercial driver's license (CDL), or CDL instruction permit you must bring two identification documents, one proof of legal presence, one proof of Virginia residency, and proof of your complete social security number (if you have been issued one). Anyone applying for a CDL or CDL instruction permit is required to provide a social security number. To apply for a photo identification (ID) card you must bring two identification documents, one proof of legal presence and one proof of Virginia residency. If you were born in 1937 or earlier and have held a Virginia driver's license or ID card that is not expired for more than five years, you are not required to provide proof of legal presence.

Temporary documents and photocopies of documents will not be accepted. All documents must be originals. All documents will be subject to verification, which may delay the issuance of your license, learner's permit or photo identification card.

DMV may require additional documents. DMV will not accept a document when there is reason to believe it has been altered, fraudulently obtained or is fake, forged, counterfeit or otherwise non-genuine or illegitimate.

Falsifying information on a driver's license, learner's permit, CDL, CDL learner's permit or ID card application is a criminal offense. Assisting a person with improperly or fraudulently obtaining a driver's license, learner's permit, CDL, CDL learner's permit or ID card are also criminal offenses. Altering, manufacturing, selling or possessing a fraudulent birth certificate, driver's license or ID card are criminal offenses.

The acceptable documents listed in this publication may change without prior notice.

If you have official documentation, not listed below, that you believe meets these requirements please present it to your local DMV office for review.

Proof of Identity

Documents submitted as primary proof of identity must show your full legal name and date of birth. Nicknames will not be accepted. You must present at least one document from the primary list of documents. The second proof of identity may come from either the primary list or the secondary list. If two of your proofs of identity are issued by the same entity, such as the same state agency, DMV may require additional proof of identity documents. Individuals under the age of 19 are required to provide only one proof of identity from the primary list.
